BIRGITTA VISSER

ABOUT BIRGITTA

Birgitta Visser is Soul Empowerment Coach and Light Configurator, delivering messages from the many Light BEings to the aid of humanity. She is a courier for those who wish to convey their messages across.

She is a Dutch mutt, living the good life with her ninja black sidekick dog that she rescued from the streets in Florida. She's been a model, bartender, promo girl, dog walker, healer, web designer, created her own organic soap line, designed jewelry, taught many holistic workshops, and maneuvered herself to holding a demanding job in the corporate industry. In other words, she's an excellent all-around chameleon.

She's traveled the world rather extensively, as being a wanderer is in her blood. She's gotten herself into many difficult situations, yet has managed to vanquish her demons. Her often turbulent journey has been a learning curve. She is who she is, and has learned to embrace all quirky aspects of herself, often stumbling through the darkness of her trauma yet never giving up.

Birgitta is a pro at surfing the cosmic dimensional waves across the Multiverse, delivering the many messages she receives from the collective of Light BEings, Ascended Masters, Archangels, and Galactics in the hope that people will awaken to what life is all about. She has a profound knowledge of ancient wisdom that has over the years bubbled from deep within and has emerged as an inspirational channel having been submerged in her own traumatic experiences and having chosen to overcome these.

She is simply here to offer her words as food for thought in unlocking your own potential and be-com-ing authentically you, while journeying back to the unfolding of the beautiful lotus of the light of who you are.

Life is like the sound of music. You've got to dance before the music is over and live before life is over.

POWER SOUL HEALING

Power Soul Healing is the art of healing and empowering your own soul. It is about taking back your I AM Power and learning to stand in your own True Authenticity. We are all Sparks of the Divine Consciousness, co-creating in the experiment of the human embodiment.

Don't like it, well then it's time to get with the program and start making the necessary changes to live a Life more abundant in all ways, for trust me you are deserving! We are all electromagnetic frequency waves, the Alchemists of our own creations. Don't like how the story changes the energetic vibration thereof. We are all Conscious Fields of Energy, plugged into the Whole, the One Field where all Energy resides as One. We play this game of Cosmic hide and seek with the Self, to evolve the learned Self to the Mastery of our true Authenticity. We are all part of the same song, the same verse, the Uni-verse - just in different tones and octaves trying to find harmony, hence fine-tuning oneself, finding that melodic balance that vibrates to your own Divine Frequency. And once we do so individually and collectively we'll all be singing from that same One verse - the Uni-verse - and thus we are All One.

KIND WORDS

"I have had a treatment, an angel card reading and many many email conversations with Birgitta where she was encouraging me and believed in me more than I did myself. Her lovely, vibrant and positive personality gave me so much motivation and energy, that I actually started on the right path after the sessions. If I have a bad day I just read one of her "daily wisdoms" or take a look at her photo's and I feel better instantly! Thank you for that and keep on making people happy Birgitta!" :)

KIND WORDS

"I still remember my first Angel card reading with Birgitta. It was a couple of years ago. Based on the cards, she said that there was only emptiness in me. She was spot on! She advised me to focus on myself and do things for myself. I took her advice and had my ME time. Gradually things began to manifest. Like everything in life, we need to have patience in order to cultivate success. I also learned to trust my inner voice and recognise the signs. I certainly have grown as a person and evolved! Over the years I have also recommended my family and friends to Birgitta's Angel card readings. They were very pleased with the accuracy of her readings. Birgitta, thank you for your loving support and friendship!"

~ Irene

"Birgitta has reinforced my optimism for life and my strength to pursue my true life goals. Serenity and good energy surrounds her, and all these good vibrations triggered clarity in my readings, sounding advice and a lot of wisdom. My life changed direction. I've carved a new path, it was rough and difficult in the beginning; but remembering my readings and understanding that it all depended on me trusting my own instincts, and believing in myself; and as per synchronicity, things started to fall in place. Incredibly accurate. Call it serendipity, synchronicity, blessings... Birgitta is able to bring the best out of you, and show you that perseverance, being authentic, you can find all the answers you were looking for.

Thank you for the friendship, and good luck with your brand new website! Good vibrations!!"

~ Jeannie C

"Birgitta is one of life's "angels" . I have had treatments of angelic reiki which have helped me with my rheumatism endlessly and initially I was skeptical !! But it's the energy that Birgitta has for life that has inspired me, she is a truly wonderful human being, who has compassion, love and above all faith.

Your life has been troubled at times, but you are a strong person and have helped me with my troubles and I thank you for that. Birgitta thank you and god bless you."

~ Martin Allum

"Birgitta, I haven't had any treatments with you but you have given me strength and hope when all around me was collapsing. Your light and energy are important to me, always on the lookout for one of your posts, a comment that touches me to the core. Thank you for allowing me to be part of your life and I wish you a lot of Positive moments and experiences in your path. Sharing the Love. Namaste.<3"

The Essence of BE-com-ing Authentically You

- ← Great Cosmic Sun, the Creator of all of Creation.
- ← Galactic StarSeed symbolism, your connection to the Great Council of Light of all Cosmic BEings.
- ← The road to enlightenment, lies in understanding that you are pi, that you are nothing and everything at the same time.
- ← The lotus flower, the I AM seat of your ever unfolding and blossoming Soul.
- ← The Earth Star, anchoring the Soul to the physical essence of your body.

"You are a Star BEing created from the embers of the Cosmic Sun connected to the celestial Stars, as above so below anchored to the grid of the Earth, with your Soul having taken up residence in the physical essence, rooted in the beautiful ever-unfolding and blossoming lotus flower, partaking in the journey of life through the art of expanding through polarities, relinquishing one's experiences through the art of the violet flame of transmutation, and understanding that like pi you are everything and nothing at the same time. You have no beginning or end. You are an infinite formulated mathematical equation to the truth of all Creation. You are Life, and you are Light. You are a Fibonacci formulation to the evolution of the spiritual revolution of your Soul waltzing back to the truth of who you are and always have been."

The Pyramid in Pi Explained

The Pÿr-a-mid denotes one as being an energetic formulation of the Divine, built according to the sacred geometrical design and Divine blueprint of the Universe. You are an eternal fire dancing but ever so gracefully back to one's variable of an atomic structural formulation through the progression of the Soul's experiences creating an arithmetic sequence eventually spinning back to the central axis of the very pi of the grid of Self, connecting back to the 'Alpha', the One of All, as much as the All has always been One with You, basking in the Eternal Remembrance of who one is and has always been."
